FROM FATHER JOSEPH

Prayer for Public Confession at the beginning of Sunday Worship

- Almighty and merciful God, you have brought us together in the name of your Son to receive your mercy and grace in our time of need.
- Open our eyes to see the evil we have done. Touch our hearts and convert us to yourself.
- Where sin has divided and scattered, may your love make one again; where sin has brought weakness, may your power heal and strengthen; where sin has brought death, may your Spirit raise to new life.
- Give us a new heart to love you, so that our lives may reflect the image of your Son.
- May the world see the glory of Christ revealed in your church and come to know that he is the one whom you have sent, Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord.

COLLECT

O God, protector of those who hope in you, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy, bestow in abundance your mercy upon us and grant that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

From the Second Book of Kings (4:42-44)

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing Elisha, the man of God, bread from the first-fruits, twenty barley loaves and fresh grain in the ear.' 'Give it to the people to eat', Elisha said. But his servant replied, 'How can I serve this to a hundred men?' 'Give it to the people to eat' he insisted 'for the Lord says this, "They will eat and have some left over."' He served them; they ate and had some left over, as the Lord had said. // The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSE

Psalm 144.10-11, 15-18

You open wide your hand, O Lord, and grant our desires.

SECOND READING From Saint Paul's Second Letter to the Ephesians (4:1-6)

I, the prisoner in the Lord, implore you to lead a life worthy of your vocation. Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together. There is one Body, one Spirit, just as you were all called into one and the same hope when you were called. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God who is Father of all, over all, through all and within all.
//The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION cf. John 6:63, 68
Alleluia, alleluia! Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life; you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

GOSPEL John (6:1-15)

Jesus went off to the other side of the Sea of Galilee – or of Tiberias – and a large crowd followed him, impressed by the signs he gave by curing the sick. Jesus climbed the hillside, and sat down there with his disciples. It was shortly before the Jewish feast of Passover.
Looking up, Jesus saw the crowds approaching and said to Philip, ‘Where can we buy some bread for these people to eat?’ He only said this to test Philip; he himself knew exactly what he was going to do. Philip answered, ‘Two hundred denarii would only buy enough to give them a small piece each.’ One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said, ‘There is a small boy here with five barley loaves and two fish; but what is that between so many?’ Jesus said to them, ‘Make the people sit down.’ There was plenty of grass there, and as many as five thousand men sat down. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and gave them out to all who were sitting ready; he then did the same with the fish, giving out as much as was wanted. When they had eaten enough he said to the disciples, ‘Pick up the pieces left over, so that nothing gets wasted.’ So they picked them up, and filled twelve hampers with scraps left over from the meal of five barley loaves. The people, seeing this sign that he had given, said, ‘This really is the prophet who is to come into the world.’ Jesus, who could see they were about to come and take him by force and make him king, escaped back to the hills by himself.
. / The Gospel of the Lord / Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH CATECHISM – THE CHURCH MOTHER AND TEACHER

Mother and Teacher. It is the Church, in communion with all the baptized, that the Christian fulfils his vocation. From the Church he/she receives the Word of God containing the teachings of ‘the law of Christ’. From the Church we receive the grace of the sacraments that sustains us on the ‘way’. From the Church we learn the example of holiness and recognise its model and source in all holy Virgin Mary. We discover it the spiritual tradition and long history of the saints who have gone before us and whom the liturgy celebrates.

Moral life is our spiritual worship. The moral life is spiritual worship. We ‘present our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God’, within the Body of Christ that we form and in communion with the offering of his Eucharist. The whole of Christian life finds its source and summit in the Eucharistic sacrifice (the celebration of the Holy Mass). In the liturgy and the celebration of the sacraments, prayer and teaching are conjoined with the grace of Christ to enlighten and nourish Christian activity. (CCC 2030, 2031)
